IMAGINE A WORLD

In the early 1950's, scientists began working with subatomic particles. They debated if they could recreate the big bang, and that's exactly what they set out to do. In 1954, the first particle accelerator was turned on. It had the strength to smash together two protons. This resulted in the creation of a wormhole, which connected to a hyper-dimensional reality.

That wormhole opened a doorway for the POSSESSORS, wicked extradimensional beings, with the ability to enter and control the human mind, to cross into our world. They began with the scientists and government officials in the lab, and then spread out to high ranking political figures, the military, law enforcement, even the wealthy and elite, to form a union known as the NEW WORLD ORDER. This group of the rich and powerful minions, secretly work in the shadows, to create a one world government, and achieve complete power over the human race.

The background is a complex collage. On the left, there's a cityscape with a large, stylized eye in the center, composed of many smaller eyes or lenses. To the right, a person in a grey quilted hoodie is seen from behind, holding a white sign that says "EAT THE RICH". The overall color palette is dominated by reds, oranges, and greys, with a dark, moody atmosphere. In the top right corner, there's a small, glowing red, tentacle-like creature.

EAT THE RICH MYTHOLOGY

EVERYONE IS BORN GOOD: But there are spirits that exist in the world with evil intent (IE murder, greed, hate, depression, etc.), and throughout your life these entities latch on to you, and control how you think and act. This explains why some people are good, some are bad, and some for no reason snap, and commit heinous acts.

WITH PROPER TRAINING: Humans are capable of amazing powers through the use of metaphysical science; transformation of matter, astral projection, dematerializing, teleportation, telepathy, and more.

POSSESSORS ARE NOT BASED ON CEREBRAL OR NERVOUS STRUCTURES THAT WE KNOW : An unstable mass of energy, when inside a human, the person they inhabit glows red, if they are evil, and amber, if they are good. If the host is not aware of their presence, it struggles to remain concealed, which can be seen as an eerie glow that washes over the host (aura) and a rapid flicker, from black to normal, of the host's pupils (the window to the soul).

THE HIDDEN ELECT RULES OUR WORLD, BUT ONE OF THEM WILL FIGHT FOR US.

SYNOPSIS

As a child from NEW YORK CITY, all Christina knew was fear and loneliness. Kidnapped as a newborn, she spent her adolescence ushered between impostor parents or lost in the system of Government backed institutions. Haunted by wicked apparitions since birth, she was labeled as insane. After a stint in an asylum, where she's fed pills to suppress the visions, she escapes into the night.

Raised in LOS ANGELES, Jory lives a normal life. He's a simple guy, who dreams of a good job, marriage, and settling down. That all changes the day he stands over a murdered friend, a bloody knife in his hand, and no recollection of what happened. He runs from the authorities, and spins down a rabbit hole of conspiracy theories, in search of an answer to what happened that day.

As a young adult, Christina now lives in EAST BERLIN, GERMANY. She's a starving artist, and has run out of pills, with no way to get more. The terrifying visions are back! She confides in her eccentric neighbor, Jory, who introduces her to an open-minded group of people, and an array of new age practices.

But when Christina and Jory determine that the entities are real, they take it upon themselves to find the truth, and discover a world that exists on the fringe of society, and extradimensional beings, which are hell bent on taking over our universe.

Jory will have to face what really happened the day he murdered his friend, and Christina will make the ultimate choice – us or them.

A WORLD IN PERIL, AND ONLY ONE WOMAN HAS THE CHOICE TO SAVE IT.
